I support the changes proposed in petition RM-10870 prepared by the National Conference of Volunteer Examiner Coordinators in the establishment of a new "entry-level" license class and the elimination of the morse code requirement. I would recommend that a much tougher technical examination be provided for applicants to a General or Extra class license to ensure that users are technically competent (the current examinations are a bit on the easy side).